The fears that we have brought into this time today are -

That nothing will happen.

That something will happen.

This solitary work, we cannot do alone.

But, I cannot become

My story -

Hidden in Plain Sight

“Among all my patients in the second half of life - that is to say, over thirty-five - there has not been one whose problem in the last resort was not that of finding a religious outlook on life. It is safe to say that every one of them fell ill because he had lost what the living religions of every age have given to their followers, and none of them has been really healed who did not regain his religious outlook. This of course has nothing whatever to do with a particular creed or membership of a church.”

Almost all emotional, relational and spiritual difficulties are caused by -

A failure to accept that “what is,” “is.”

And the belief: “I’m not happy now but I will be when I can make you be different.

Everything changes and ends.

Things don't always go according to plan.

Life is not always fair.

Pain is a part of life.

People are not loving and loyal all the time.
